from The North of Ireland Veterinary Association

Simon Doherty, President of NIVA cordially invites you to the NIVA AGM 2016

Wednesday 27th January 2016 in The White River House Hotel, Toomebridge commencing 7.30 pm

Speaker: Professor The Lord Sandy Trees Topic: The Life and work of a Veterinary Peer

Lord Trees undertook a research expedition to Kenya in 1969 to 1970. He spent a year as a practising veterinarian in Derby, England, resulting in him completing a PhD on bovine babesiosis. He joined veterinary pharmaceuticals company Elanco in Rome. He was veterinary advisor for the Middle East from 1977 to 1979, Turkey and Africa from 1979 to 1980, and finally Head of Animal Science in the Middle East and Africa in 1980. He then joined the University of Liverpool as a lecturer of veterinary parasitology. He was Head of the Department of Veterinary Parasitology from 1992 to 2001. In 1994, he was made Professor of veterinary parasitology and appointed Head of the Parasite and Vector Biology Division at the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine where he was Dean of the Faculty of Veterinary Science, from 2001 to 2008. In 2011, he retired from the University. He was Vice-President of the European Veterinary Parasitology College from 2006 to 2009 & President of the RCVS from 2009 to 2010. From 2011, he is a member of the Executive Committee of the World Association for the Advancement of Veterinary Parasitology. He has been Chairman of the Moredun Research Institute since December 2011.
